ALLOWANCE

Claims 1-10 are allowed.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 18 August 2005 has been entered.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest the claimed invention. Specifically, the prior art of record fails to teach or suggest defining a derived function, wherein said superfunction is explicitly specified and said derived function inherits from said superfunction, as recited in independent claims 1 and 6.

The prior art of record, Agrawal et al. (USPN 5,696,974), disclosed functions calling other functions and thus indirectly passing the features of one function to another function. However, Agrawal failed to disclose the independent claims as recited including a true inheritance relationship between functions as clearly indicated by the independent claims.

The prior art of record, Karr et al. (USPN 6,857,118), disclosed a top level function and sub functions (column 6, lines 37-49). However, Karr failed to disclose the independent claims as recited including elements of a function being inherited and executing super functions and derived functions as specified.

The prior art of record, Hejlsberg (USPN 6,185,728), disclosed method pointers achieving delegation (figure 3B). However, Hejlsberg failed to disclose the independent claims as recited including a true inheritance relationship between methods/functions. Hejlsberg is merely another system to choose the correct method to execute not methods inheriting/passing properties/elements.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
